in this game it is expressed that the girl is a new student, she was a very shy kid and did not have any friends here so she felt so alone, and scared, but with yoyo by her side, she have gained confidence and learn on how not to be scared with anything or giving up so easily and trust the process with confidence and creativity, and by the end with her positivity confidence, she has managed to become friends with her classmates

CHALLENGES

Angie: the challengest part is when I try to have the highlight button, and the condition of when it was wrong in level 1

Emma: the challengest part is when I try to help with the color fill in level 1, it didn't work properly

YuRou: the challengest part is the combination of pictures and word animation. Thanks Chatgpt and KuanHua help design the picture.

KuanHua: the challengest part is when combining all the levels and resources together and fixing the errors or bugs in the game

THANK
